NOTE: Jackie Robinson is the well-known Negro baseball player who was with the Brooklyn Dodgers for many years. He has held an executive position in the Chock Full O'Nuts Corporation. Very recently he indicated publicly that although he has been a staunch Republican he would switch his support to Hubert Humphrey and any candidate that could defeat Nixon. Bufiles reflect that Duckett in 1967 was the Executive Director, Uptown Chamber of Commerce, New York City.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Summary

Jackie Robinson, nationally-known former baseball player, who was born on January 31, 1919, at Cairo, Georgia, has not been the subject of an investigation by the FBI. However, our files reveal the following information concerning him. Conn.

The June 1, 1946, issue of "People's Voice" reported that Jackie Robinson, the first Negro to break into organized baseball, had accepted chairmanship of the New York State Organizing Committee for United Negro and Allied Veterans of America (UNAVA). The "People's Voice" has been cited by the California Committee on Un-American Activities as being communist initiated and controlled. The UNAVA has been cited as a communist front by the Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee.

The November, 1946, issue of "Fraternal Outlook" contained an article concerning the opening of the Solidarity Center of the International Workers Order (IWO) in Harlem, New York. The name, Jackie Robinson, baseball player, was listed as one of the persons on the Advisory Board of this Center.

"Fraternal Outlook" is an official publication of the IWO, an organization cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (100-428850-2)

According to a news release on September 13, 1968, Jackie Robinson, former baseball star, while speaking at a news conference minutes before leaving to address a Black Panther meeting in Brooklyn, New York, was reported as having stated, "The Black Panther organization is one with an interest in seeking peace and reports otherwise are due to misinformed newsmen. Improper reporting has determined that they (the Black Panthers) are a militant group while the fact is they are seeking peace." [REDACTED]

Robinson Backs Defense of Black Group, but Mrs. Basie Defers

(Pan African Press)

NEW YORK—Jackie Robinson came to the "defense" of the Black Panthers while Mrs. Count Basie said they were "offensive" last week here. Robinson said it was disgraceful that 300 off-duty city cops jumped and beat up 12 Black Panthers, noting that the odds were far from "sporting."

ROBINSON, who was the first Black ballplayer in the major leagues and opened the doors to many great Black stars since and many more yet to come, admitted that he, too, could have become a Black Panther as a teenager.

The goals of the Black Panther Party are no different than those of major civil rights groups, said Robinson. "The Black Panthers seek self-determination, protection of the Black community, decent housing and employment and express opposition to police abuse," he said.

The former Brooklyn Dodger great, who came to New York to meet with the militant Black group which has been stirring up a headline-storm, criticized police who are "trigger-happy" and "white people in general" who have "their heads sticking way down in the sands."

"They think by keeping their heads in the sands," said Robbie, "that things will pass over and things will be alright as long as we don't rock the boat and as long as we don't do things that will upset."

"I say that white America has to get its head out of the sand and understand that we are not going to continue to tolerate the kinds of things that have gone on in the past," he continued. "There has to be a willingness to sit down and develop a dialogue. They have to recognize that Black people aren't asking for people to give them anything. We want to develop pride and dignity in ourselves and we can't do it on relief. But we also know that we have families to feed and therefore we are going to get as much as we possibly can . . . There are not enough people around who give a damn about what is going on as far as the Black man is concerned," he said.

GIVING an opposite picture of things was Mrs. Count Basie, wife of the famous band leader, who appeared before an open hearing of the Joint State Legislative Committee on Crime here. She charged that "the increased violence and Black Panthers coming in" had forced her to resign recently from the South Jamaica Community Council.

Crying crocodile tears, Mrs. Basie said that her life had been threatened, as well as her home in the predominately white community of Forest Hills. She also said that neighborhood control of schools, which most Black parents throughout New York City are fighting for and which is the core of the Ocean Hill-Brownsville crisis, could defeat school integration because of extremists in both ethnic groups. "I can't go along with Black principals, Black schools, Black teachers and Black Panthers," she exclaimed.

JACKIE ROBINSON

Jackie Robinson Criticizes Police In Panther Inquiry

Jackie Robinson criticized law enforcement authorities here yesterday for having "done nothing" in the case of 150 off-duty policemen and firemen accused of beating up 10 Black Panthers and two white sympathizers in the hall of the Brooklyn Criminal Courts Building last September.

The retired professional baseball star, former community relations adviser to Governor Rockefeller, also taxed Mayor Lindsay with having neglected to "check up" on whether anything happened to the alleged assailants of the Black Panther group. Several of the victims required hospital treatment at the time.

Mr. Robinson's remarks were made before the board of governors of the National Conference of Christians and Jews at a luncheon meeting in the St. Moritz Hotel at which he accepted a service award for his work as 1968 Brotherhood Week chairman of the human relations agency.

In his speech, Mr. Robinson said, "If we don't arrest people for beating up black people, if we allow incidents like the one in Brooklyn to go on without the people responsible being brought to justice, if we don't do the right thing here in New York, we're going to have trouble all over the United States."

Elliott Golden, speaking for District Attorney Eugene Gold of Brooklyn, said Mr. Robinson's information about the case was not complete.

"A grand jury has been investigating the situation," Mr. Golden said. "The matter hasn't been completed but hopefully it will be in the not too distant future."

The victims of the attack were represented by William M. Kunstler and Jay Lefcourt, attorneys. Mr. Lefcourt said yesterday that he believed that Mr. Robinson was right.

The New York Times reported last Oct. 20 that the chief inspector's investigating unit the Police Department had gone to considerable lengths in its investigation of the incident, questioning all policemen having business in the court and virtually all the patrolmen on the midnight-to-8 A.M. shift in the 28 Brooklyn precincts on the day of the incident. The results were turned over to the grand jury.
